The Overland China Mail.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR THE HOME MAIL,

TS PUBLISHED to suit the Departure of each English and French MAIL Steamer for Europe. Formerly the Over-land issue was published fortnightly; but as it was deemed of special importance that a weekly budget of news should be prepared, it was decided to issue it weekly. Subscribers at Home, and those at the Coast Ports and in the interior, who find the Overland edition a convenient form of newspaper for their perusal, will welcome the change. The Overland China Mail, now a weekly compendium of news from the Far East, contains special Commercial intelli-gence, special tables of Shipping, and other information. The various Reports of Courts and Meetings, and all other news, are given in full as they appear in the Daily issue.

The attention of Advertisers is directed to a weekly newspaper, which is circulated among old China 'hands' and others, both at home and in the Far East, who do not take the daily journals. The Overland China Mail will be regularly posted from the China Mail Office to subscribers, on their addresses being forwarded to us. SUBSCRIPTION : Per Annum, - - - $12.00, postage, - $1.00 " Quarter - - 3.00,

Lf Ashing, who was charged at the Police Court some days ago with burglariously entering the house of Chan Afuk, a married woman, and stealing therefrom a hag containing four gold bangles, one gold hair pin, 18 gold buttons, two $10 gold pieces and two promissory notes for $100 each, the total value being $400, was convicted of being in possession of burglar's tools and was ordered to pay $30 or suffer 3 months hard labour, there being no direct evidence to show that he stole the articles.

SPEAKING of the state of Tonkin, L'Avanir du Tonkin says General Jamont is at present on a tour of inspection on the Red River. The military information that our contemporary has received shows that brigandage is overywhere represed, chased and tracked. It is permissible to hope that the next campaign from October 1886 to March 1887 will see the definite destruction of the bands of thieves and brigands which profit by the season of the great heats to over-run the country and attempt to establish there their ancient preponderance. - The Delimitation Commission has arrived at Lan-kai.

M. PAUL BERT has created in Tonkin a corps savant under the denomination of Bac-ki-han-lam-vien (Tonkin Academy), which will sit at Hanoi, and will have for its object the very general one of researching and collecting all that interests from any point of view the country of Tonkin. It will undertake the conservation of monuments, initiate the Annamese in modern science, help forward the translation of European books in Annamese and translations of the dynastic annals of Tonkin into French, and in the formstion of public libraries &c., &c. To be admitted the savants of Tonkin must be provided with the University grade of doctor (Cat-si and Tiend-si) or of licentiate (Cuu-nhon),

THE details of the riots in Chung-King, and the indiscriminate manner in which the rioters appear to have attacked all nationslities and destroyed their property, do not read very wall after the very high assumptions of the Viceroy of Kwangtung. It is true that the riots at Chung-King are outside the sphere of H. E. Chang Chi-tung's jurisdiction; but from the tall language used by the Viceroy, it might have been supposed that every province of the Empire vied with the other in careful preservation of European and American life and earthenware (or household gods). We have no defence to make of the excesses committed by the French during the socalled 'reprisals,' or of the disturbances in the United States against the orderly Chinese immigrants. But it is, perhaps, somewhat premature for the Governor General of the Two Kwang to crack up the peaceloving proclivities of his countrymen.

We understand that a meeting of Council will he held shortly to discuss the advisability of opening the proceedings of the Finance Committee to the members of the Press. Until than it is unnecessary farther to enlarge on the subject. It appears to us, however, that some arrangement could easily be come to, under which all important votes and those questions which materially affect the public should be discussed in open Council, leaving the details to be dealt with or cut and dried as privately as need be. The clear principle is, that the voting of large sums of money should not be made a foregone conclusion in private consultation previous to the vote being pected here on or about Friday morn- formally recorded in Council . The question as to whether any particular government corvant is to be paid 75 cent or $1 extra a month, may be discussed as secretly as the Government Offices will permit; but the good sense of the Excentive, apart from any outside pressure, ought to make easy any suggestion to discuss public questions in a public place.

Says the Shanghai Courier :- We have been informed, and upon good authority, that the native washermen, that is, the actual workers, have struck-on account of the action of the head mahermen, who have, it seems, employed more apprentices than the journeymen kulthts of the soapsuds approve of. Hence the difficulty, as the workmen think thatif too many learn the business wages will go down. This may be so, but this is the fint intimation we have had of the fact that it requires an apprenticeship to learn how to destroy the clothes of foreigners. The work of the washerman does not appear to require any very special training, as it conside mainly in banging the soiled linen against a rock. Perhaps. though, it requires a peculiar knack to rip a garment up the back, or to strip it of buttons, artistically. At any event the workmen threaten to cease work if their demands are not complied with, and if they do the ward fix, as the laundry work of the Settlements is all done by the natives. Hongkong neighbours are better off, as they have a laundry company, but from the reports lately published this company is being worked at a loss. Evidently the number of native washermen imuch in excess of those actually needed, and the addition of more to their ranks in the shape of apprentices has excited the ire of those already in the business. We hopefor the sake of cleanliness that this difficulty is amicably arranged, as in this hot weather it would be intolerable if clean linen was not to be had in abundance.

ALLEGED SWINDLING BY 'AN AMERICAN BROKER.

The case against James William Dundell whose proper name s Spencer, but who has taken to himself at various times severa aliasessuch as de Silva, A. THE ANTI-MISSIONARY RIOTS IN

OHUNGKING. The Chungking correspondent of the Shanghai Mercury, writing on the 2nd instant, gives the following account of the disturbances at that place : - Yesterday occurred one of the worst riots that has taken place in this city for many years. The whole, city seems to have turned upside down, and fairly gone wild in the course of a few hours. On the 5th of the 5th moon there was a slight trouble at one of the missionary establishments, belonging to the American mission, known as the Foo Yin Tang. After that petitions were sent in to the Yamens requesting the magistrate to prohibit the missionaries from building on the ninals convicted at the Sessions, held on ground they had purchased a few miles from the city: their petitions were rejected. Then numerous placards were posted aver the tow: denouncing missionaries of all Wong Aon, who was convicted of this creeds, especially those of the Foc Yin

There are also said to be other prominent Catholics similarly prepared for an attack. The officials seem to be powerless. Several arrests were made last evening, but they were released, the officials not daring to offend military students at present; but after the examinations are over there will probably be a day of reckoning for some of them. The Hankow correspondent of the Shang-ai Courier sends the following :-Hankow, 12th July.

The steamer Kinng-tung is in port. She brought down bad news from Chungking. The American missionaries gave great offence to the people by building some houses on the heights, and overtopping the native structures. For some time past the bad feeling has been increasing, and finally it culminated in the sacking and burning of the American mission. Then the English mission was destroyed in the same manner, afterwards the English Consul's (Mr was badly injured. Afterwards the rioters and absolutely destroyed everything. What enraged them most was. I believe, that when they first attacked the United States Missions, the Missionuries began firing on the people with revolvers. The mob it appears thereupon made up its mind for a general expulsion, or extermination of the missionaries. I hear that Eather Angelo got a letter two days ago confirming the news brought by the steamer. I believe Mr Gardner, H. B. M.'s Consul is sending provisions by the steamer Atanatrung to Ichang for the English Missionaries, who have, I presume, left Changking and arrived at Ichaug.

The additional news is that on Sunday, C. T. Gardner, Esq., H. B. M.'s Consu here, received a despatch by special courier from Mr Bourne, the British Consular agent at Chungking. This despatch was to the effect that Mr Bourns had received three serious wounds, and that he and all the foreigners were residing at the Tsotai's and Magistrate's Yamena. Mr Gardner, I hear, at once took the responsibility of recalling all those under British protection from Chungking, sending his despatch to Mr Bourne, through the Viceroy here, by special courier. Having done this Mr Gardner placed himself in telegraphic communication with the British Minister at Peking and it is to be expected that Sir John Walsham will approve Mr Gardner's action. We cannot speak too highly of Mr Gardner's promptaction, liberality and forethought in this matter. He is sending stores up to Ichang by the Kiangling, which leaves this evening, Monday, and he is giving Mr Gregory, H. B.M.'s Consul at Ichang, power to draw on him for an unlimited amount to enable him to render assistance to all, irrespective of nationality, who may arrive at Ichang from Chungking.

I have heard translated a Chinese letter from Chungking. It states that the trouble arose in consequence of a conversation, in a Chinese hotel, between some military men, being overheard. Their talk related to the earl deings of converts, and the

THE CHINA REVIEW

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY, TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet 1 the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan,' has reached its Thirteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., BORDEAUX, LE HAVRE, DUNKIRK, of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the LONDON AND ANTWERP.
